

Biography

Angela Billington RGN,SCM,Dip HV now working as Director of Continence Services Bournemouth PCT covering the Continence Service for East Dorset (pop. 400,000, 25% over 60)

From 1st April 2002 main role integrating the continence service for 2004

Previously worked in Hertfordshire as clinical nurse specialist and managing continence service , worked in continence care for 23 years.

Chair for RCN Continence care forum for 4 years, member of the committee for 8 years (finish term of office in April 2002)

Committee member for 1st international conference on benign prostatic enlargement and a year later incontinence WHO.

Working party member for NICE – men with lower urinary tract symptoms. Working member for Health outcome indicators incontinence. Working party member for DoH ‘Good practice guidelines for continence services 2000’. Active member of research group looking at implementation of Guidelines. Working party member for Royal College of physicians to develop audit tools and effectively evaluate quality of care provided to older people with incontinence.

Nurse representative on committee for ASCU (Association for shared care in urology). Various articles and publications on continence issues

